Christian Crown Society

Honoring gifts given in faith.

The Christian Crown Society was created in 2005 to remember and honor members and friends of Redeemer who have provided for the church through bequests, charitable trusts, life insurance policies, gifts of retirement assets or estate plans.

Membership in the Society may be attained in two ways: when a minimum of $2,000 is given to the Foundation either at once or over a period of time; or when a parishioner designates either The Episcopal Church of the Redeemer or The Redeemer Foundation in their estate plans.

In gratitude for their generosity, Redeemer's Foundation awards Society members recognition, including a special event to be held each year beginning in 2006.

Special Message from Fr. Steve:

The Crown of Thorns tells us the extent of pain that Our Lord, Jesus, was willing to endure for our salvation. Over the past two millennia, the Church has honored that crown as a symbol of His sacrifice and selfless giving so that others might have life eternal.

Redeemer's Christian Crown Society honors those who, knowing the ongoing needs of the church, generously provide for its future in the form of monetary gifts.

In so doing, they take up that Crown of Christ, wearing it sacrificially just as our Lord did many years ago.

I pray, Brothers and Sisters, that you will joyfully join the ranks of the Christian Crown Society and be a vital part of Redeemer's future.

Membership in the Society recognizes your interest and support. These gifts help ministries and missions continue for future generations. You may give a gift in loving memory or in thanksgiving for a loved one.

Being recognized as a member of the Christian Crown Society does not entail disclosure of any gifts beyond the minimum $2,000.

The Society is for committed Christians to give a legacy of faith. It is the ultimate stewardship gift.
